

FRESNO STATE.

Rise Above
Become a Bulldog! >>>

Admissions and Recruitment

559.278.2261 | gotofresnostate.com

Pride of the Valley

A vibrant, diverse, and award-winning university, Fresno State offers high-quality academic programs that emphasize hands-on learning experiences designed to prepare students for success after graduation.

As students, they'll learn from our faculty who are regionally, nationally, and globally recognized and are at the top of their professions in the areas of agriculture, arts and humanities, business, education, engineering, health and human services, science and math, and the social sciences.

As graduates, they'll join the esteemed Bulldog alumni network made up of over 240,000 living alumni worldwide.

Visit stories.fresnostate.edu to learn more about Bulldog success!

Valley of Opportunity

Fresno State is preparing the next generation of leaders, empowered to meet the direct needs of the Valley and equipped to make a positive impact in the world.

The university's eight schools and colleges offer 72 undergraduate, 49 post-baccalaureate, and three doctoral degree programs. These programs emphasize hands-on learning experiences that prepare students for success.

Our graduates go on to make significant advancements in critical industries, blazing new trails that can be traced around the globe, but it all starts in this "Valley of Opportunity," where nearly every resident is positively impacted by Bulldog alumni.

Rise Above
Become a Bulldog!

Jordan Agricultural Research Center

The Largest Research Building in the CSU. A world-class research center to discover and investigate the most advanced concepts and practices of agriculture, food, and natural resources. The Jordan Agricultural Research Center fosters collaboration between some of the brightest minds in agriculture, engineering, science, and mathematics.

Save Mart Center

The largest university indoor arena on the West Coast of the U.S., featuring everything from top concerts, to bull riding, NCAA basketball playoffs, and commencement ceremonies.

Programs and Initiatives

The Cross-Cultural and Gender Center, Veterans Services Office, and Dream Success Center program are just a few programs and initiatives that reflect our tremendous diversity. For more than 50 years, enriching ethnic studies programs have been offered to students, including Chicano and Latin American studies, Asian American studies, Africana studies, Native American studies, Jewish studies and more.

Bulldog Marching Band

Known as the Best Band in the West, is an NCAA Division I marching band that provides over 300 students of all majors with local, national, and international performance opportunities.

Fresno State Athletics

As the premier major college athletics program between Southern California and the Bay Area, Fresno State builds champions in the classroom, in competition, and in life. Fresno State Athletics is the Pride of the Valley and brings together nearly 40,000 fans at each home football game.

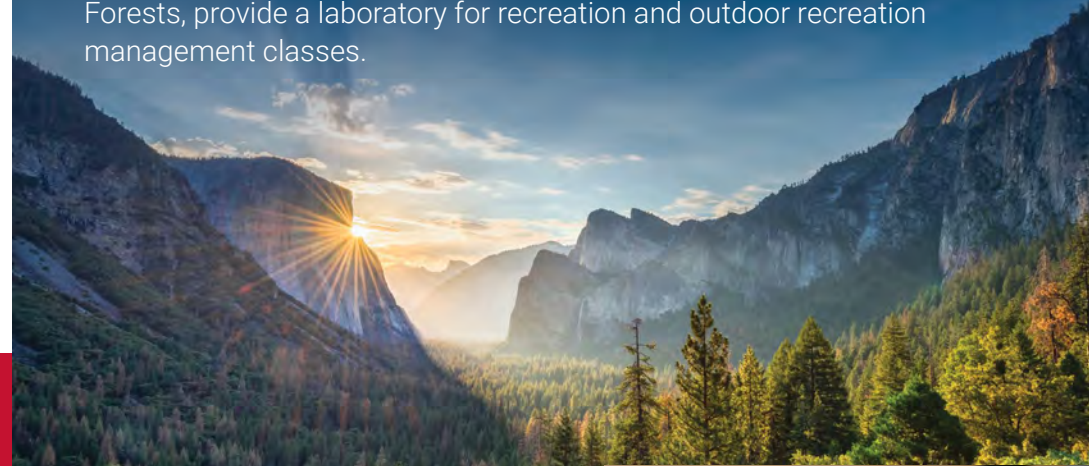

Fresno State Library

The renowned Library is a modern hub of knowledge and learning. It offers extensive collections, a welcoming environment for study and collaboration, including tutoring, research assistance, technology lending, the Graduate Writing Studio, and Starbucks®. With dedicated librarians and a vibrant atmosphere, it supports academic excellence and enriches the community.

Three of the Greatest Backyards in the World!

Sequoia, Kings Canyon, and Yosemite National Parks serve as Fresno State's outdoor classrooms for several majors. These parks, along with state parks and the nearby Sequoia and Sierra National Forests, provide a laboratory for recreation and outdoor recreation management classes.

Get Involved!

The Lynda and Stewart Resnick Student Union is an ultra-modern building for student clubs and organizations that offers a sense of belonging on campus. It has many student involvement services, including the official student government organization, Associated Students, Inc.

Career Development Center

Your college education is a huge investment of your time and money. The Career Development Center is here to help you at every stage of your college career and beyond.

Empowered for Success

Estimated Cost of Attendance

The cost of attendance includes tuition, room and board, books, supplies, transportation and personal expenses. Scan the QR code to see a rough estimate of what a student would pay for one academic year at the university.

Financial Aid

Approximately 80% of students receive some form of financial aid. Submit your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at studentaid.gov or the California Dream Act Application at dream.csac.ca.gov Oct. 1 - March 2. (School code: 001147)

Fresno State Scholarships

Apply for Fresno State Scholarships Oct. 1 - March 2. Fresno State awards over a thousand scholarships totaling more than 4 million dollars in free money to students. Apply at fresnostate.edu/scholarships.

Smittcamp Family Honors College

The Smittcamp Family Honors College selects 50 high-achieving high school seniors to receive the President's Honors Scholarship. The scholarship includes in-state tuition, a dorm stipend, and more. For deadlines, webinars, and requirements, please visit fresnostate.edu/honors.

@victorebulldog

Contact and Student Resources Information

Admissions and Recruitment
559.278.2261 | gotofresnostate.com

Student Resources Academic Degrees

