The 2021-2022 Outstanding Advisor Award recipients will be announced on Thursday, May 5, 2022. Award recipients will be selected by the Provost and the Interim-Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management and will receive a $1,000 stipend for professional development.

Eligibility

Any full time employee at Fresno State who serves as a staff advisor or faculty advisor by providing direct academic advising to students as part of his or her job duties is eligible for consideration.

Criteria

Some qualities and practices that distinguish the nominee as an outstanding faculty or staff advisor include:

- Demonstration of knowledge of overall academic requirements and various resources on campus;
- Demonstration of intentional interest in the personal and academic development of students;
- Encouraging student engagement in extracurricular or co-curricular activities;
- Helping students to develop appropriate educational and/or career goals;
- Readily available to students as an advisor, and maintains regular follow-up as needed.

Nomination Process

Faculty, staff, administrators, alumni, and current students may nominate individuals for this award. A minimum of three nomination forms must be received to be eligible for consideration. At least one form must come from a current student. No self-nominations will be recognized. To nominate someone go to the CAN Awards website or go directly to the Nomination Form.
