Special Thanks to:

Mr. Tom Uribes

Chicano alumnus and staff leaves mark on Fresno State with 29 years of service as the University's public information officer and a former editor of La Voz de Aztlan. He was a journalism major at Fresno State from 1975-1979. He wrote for student publications The Daily Collegian; Insight, the Journalism Dept. lab newspaper. As the campus' PIO, Uribes worked closely with news media personnel providing information for their stories about the university as well as coordinating university spokespersons and faculty experts on general news topics. Instrumental in helping build movements like the Chicano/Latino Commencement Celebration and the Chican@ Youth Conference.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Juan Felipe Herrera

The son of migrant farm workers, Herrera was educated at UCLA and Stanford University, and he earned his MFA from the University of Iowa Writers' Workshop. His numerous poetry collections include 187 Reasons Mexicanos Can't Cross the Border: Undocuments 1971-2007, Half of the World in Light: New and Selected Poems (2008), and Border-Crosser with a Lamborghini Dream (1999). In addition to publishing more than a dozen collections of poetry, Herrera has written short stories, young adult novels, and children's literature. In 2015 he was named U.S. poet laureate.

In 2012, Herrera was named California's poet laureate, and the U.S. poet laureate in 2015. He has won the Hungry Mind Award of Distinction, the Focal Award, two Latino Hall of Fame Poetry Awards, and a PEN West Poetry Award. His honors include the UC Berkeley Regent's Fellowship as well as fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference, and the Stanford Chicano Fellows. He has also received several grants from the California Arts Council.

Herrera is also a performance artist and activist on behalf of migrant and indigenous communities and at-risk youth. His creative work often crosses genres, including poetry opera and dance theater. His children's book, The Upside Down Boy (2000), was adapted into a musical. His books for children and young adults have won several awards, including Calling the Doves (2001), which won the Ezra Jack Keats Award, and Crashboomlove (1999), a novel-in-verse for young adults which won the Americas Award. His book Half The World in Light was a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle prize in 2009.

Herrera has taught at California State University-Fresno and at the University of California-Riverside, and he currently serves on the Board of Chancellors of the Academy of American Poets. He lives in California.
