Informed Release and Confidentiality Policy

Your right to privacy and confidentiality is a high priority at Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD). Our policy on disclosure of information conforms to the University's policies and state and federal law.

Except as noted below, no information regarding a student's disability or use of services will be released to parties outside of SSD without prior written consent:

- Information may be shared in the course of consultation with or referral to other appropriate professionals within Fresno State, when in the best interest of the students.
- NO record of disability appears on any academic transcript or permanent document maintained by the Office of the Registrar. However, for the purpose of providing priority registration and other academic services which benefit the student, I.D. numbers of those eligible are provided to the Office for the Registrar. Also, for legally mandated statistics and audits, I.D. numbers may be provided to the CSU Chancellor's Office.
- Specific information requested may be released when required by court order.
- In extreme situations where immediate harm to self or other may result, the law may require that essential information be reported to appropriate parties.

When it is necessary to communicate information to parties other than those noted above, the student will provide written authorization by completing a "Information Exchange Authorization" form. Specific information to be obtained or communicated will be identified.

If you have questions or concerns regarding your privacy or the limit of confidentiality, we encourage you to discuss these with your SSD Disability management Specialist.

I have read and understand the confidentiality policy as stated above.
