

Vintage Days 2022

April 29, 30 & May 1

Boomtown North and South

Food Booth Rules and Regulations

Please read the rules thoroughly and complete the application carefully.

- All organizations applying must be registered as a recognized student organization and be in good standing with the University. To confirm your organization's recognition status, visit <https://goo.gl/T2JNhX> or click HERE
- All applications must be received by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, March 22, 2022 to be entered in the food booth lottery.
- All applications received by the deadline will be given equal consideration. Participants from previous years will not be given priority on reserving a food entree or a booth location.
- A lottery will be utilized for selecting booth location (north or south) and menu choices. Lottery will be done in the following format: roll call, introduction and overview, and final roll call. Late arrivals past the final roll call will not be included in the lottery.
- The Student Representative for the organization must read the Food Booth Application Form and indicate they have read the food booth rules, and are aware of the lottery on Friday, March 25, 2022 and the mandatory Health and Safety meeting on Thursday, April 7, 2022 at 3 pm and the on-site meeting on Thursday, April 28, 2022 at 6 pm. If your group is not represented at these meetings in their entirety, your group will be dropped and cannot have a food booth. A representative may only represent one group.
- If you are selected for a booth and assigned a booth space, you will have until Friday, April 15, 2022 to cancel your space.
- All organizations serving food must have a food booth that complies with the California Fire Marshal & Fresno County Environmental Health requirements for outdoor tents. Vintage Days will be offering a limited number of tents that follow these regulations for rent during the weekend of Vintage Days 2022.
- All organizations must serve only the food and beverage items listed on the signed Vintage Days contract.

Tent rentals will be set up by Vintage Days, but organizations are required to provide flooring for the tents that complies with the Fresno Health Department requirements. In addition, your organization will not be allowed to post or attach any materials on the tent (i.e. taping, stapling, etc posters or signs on the tent). All organizations are responsible for cleaning their tent before the conclusion of Vintage Days. Any organization that fails to clean their tent by 7 pm on Sunday, will receive a $33 deduction from their initial deposit.

Booth Selection/Lottery Meeting - Friday, March 25, 2022

Vintage Days 2022

April 29, 30 & May 1

Boomtown North and South

Food Booth Rules and Regulations

All applications received by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, March 22 will be entered in the Booth Lottery and will be given equal consideration. The lottery will be held on Friday, March 25 at 12:00pm in USU, Rooms 312-314.

Selection of menu choice must be confirmed at the time of the lottery. You will be expected to announce your choice as your organization is selected.

- Lottery selections are not transferable
- As the lottery progresses and booth selections are made, organizations will be expected to select entrees not already selected. This may require organizations to have as many as four or five possible options prepared at the time of the lottery.
- After all spaces in Boomtown North and South have been taken, the remaining applicants will be placed on a waiting list in the order selected. The waiting list will be used if space becomes available.
- Organizations that wish to remain on the waiting list are required to attend the mandatory health and safety meeting to ensure awareness of all the requirements. Organizations that do not attend will be dropped from the waiting list.

Health and Safety Meeting - Thursday, April 7, 2022

All organizations must attend the mandatory Health and Safety meeting at the Industrial Tech Building 101 at 3 p.m on Thursday, April 7, 2022.

The safety of your members and our guests is very important. Representatives from the Department of Community & Environment Health Service will review important health rules and regulations. In addition, Vintage Days coordinators will be providing valuable information and answering questions concerning booths. At least two representatives from each organization must pass a test given immediately after the presentation by the Department of Community & Environmental Health Services to participate in Vintage Days 2022.

If your organization does not have at least two representatives present at this meeting in its entirety, your organization will be prohibited from participating in Vintage Days 2022. If your organization is selected to have a booth at least one representative who passed the test must be in the booth at all times throughout the event.

The Health Department will be conducting inspections during Vintage Days based on the Health Department Food and Safety Training. Organizations that have violations and need reinspections from the Health Department will incur a $91 fee from the Health Department, which is the student organization's responsibility to pay. Please work towards using your training knowledge to pass inspections. Your organization must pass a checklist inspection conducted by the Boomtown Coordinators prior to opening for business each day.

On-Site Meeting and Set-Up - Thursday April 28, 2022

All participating organizations must attend the mandatory on-site meeting and set up at Boomtown South (east of Music Bld) on Thursday, April 28, 2022 at 6 p.m.

If your organization does not have a representative present at this meeting, your organization will be prohibited from participating in Vintage Days 2022.

Food Preparation and Food Sales

Due to fire and safety regulations, food may not be cooked, roasted, etc., over an open flame or gas barbecue that is under a covering such as a tent or canopy. All flame or gas barbecues must be kept outside the perimeter of all tents or canopies.

In order to have a diverse food selection, organizations will not be permitted to sell the same food item as another organization. Also, the number of booths with similar items will be limited.

Food Item List

The food item list below does not represent a complete list - only examples. Any food item with beef or chicken as a main ingredient will be categorized accordingly, regardless of other ingredients. The number of booths selling items in the same category will be limited to the number indicated. Due to a high volume of organizations requesting tri-tip booths, the category will be limited to three total booths (2 in Boomtown N. and 1 in Boomtown S.) Food items must be selected from only one of the categories listed below.

Category	Examples	Estimated # Booths Boomtown South	Estimated # Booths Boomtown North
Beef	Steak, Tri-tip (3), Hamburgers	5	2

University Rules and Regulations

University regulations prohibit the selling of any food or food product made and packaged (canned, bottled, or wrapped) by a licensed producer in its original container or using a brand name in any way.

Only food items approved by Vintage Days may be sold. The selling of any other items, such as t-shirts, mugs, cups, hats, or tickets for a drawing/raffle, is prohibited.

Sales must be made from within your booth space. Only one member per organization will be permitted to solicit directly in front of your booth space. Having more than one individual or moving outside the area directly in front of your booth is prohibited.

No individual is permitted to enter any building (Music, Speech Arts, SSU) to obtain water or to wash bowls, utensils, or other items. Water sources will be provided by Vintage Days for organizations needing water.

Violations
