

Vintage Days 2018
April 20-22, 2018
Boomtown North and South
Food Booth Rules and Application

Please read the rules thoroughly and complete the application carefully.

- All organizations applying must be registered as a recognized student organization and be in good standing with the University. To confirm your organization's recognition status, visit <https://goo.gl/T2JNhX> or click HERE
- All applications must be received by 4 p.m. on Friday, February 23, 2018 to be entered in the food booth lottery.
- All applications received by the deadline will be given equal consideration. Participants from previous years will not be given priority on reserving a food entree or a booth location.
- A lottery similar to that used for the student organization booths in the Outside Area of the USU will be utilized for selecting booth and menu choices in both Boomtown North and South areas. The format of roll call, introductory and final roll call will also be replicated. Late arrivals past the final roll call will not be included in the lottery.
- Faculty/Staff advisors and student representatives must sign the application indicating they have read the food booth rules, and are aware of the lottery on Tuesday, March 6, the mandatory Health and Safety meeting on Friday, April 6, and the on-site meeting on Thursday, April 19. If your group is not represented at these meetings in their entirety, your group will be dropped and cannot have a food booth. A representative may only represent one group.
- If you are selected for a booth and assigned a booth space, you will have until Tuesday, March 13 to cancel your space.
- All organizations serving food must have a food booth that complies with the California Fire Marshal & Fresno County Environmental Health requirements for outdoor tents. Vintage Days will be offering a limited number of tents that follow these regulations for rent during the weekend of Vintage Days 2018.

- All organizations must serve only the food and beverage items listed on the signed Vintage Days contract.

Tent Rentals

This year, Vintage Days will require food booths to more strictly follow CA Fire Marshal and Fresno County Environmental Health regulations. Food booths must have a tent with fabric that complies with the California Fire Marshal requirements. Vintage Days will have a limited number of tents that may be rented to use during the three day event.

If your organization chooses to rent a tent from Vintage Days, you will be required to confirm at the booth lottery on Tuesday, March 6 at 10 a.m.. Tent rentals will be set up by Vintage Days, but organizations are required to provide flooring for the tents that complies with the Fresno Health Department requirements. In addition, your organization will not be allowed to any materials on the tent (i.e. taping, stapling, etc posters or signs on the tent).

Booth Selection/Lottery Process Meeting -- FEBRUARY 23, 2018

All applications received by 4 p.m. on Friday, February 23 will be entered in the lottery and will be given equal consideration. The lottery will be held on Tuesday, March 6 at 10 a.m. in USU, Rooms 312-314.

Selection of menu choice must be confirmed at the time of the lottery. You will be expected to announce your choice as your organization is selected. In addition, your organization must inform Vintage Days if you plan on renting a tent for the event.

- Lottery selections are not transferable

- As the lottery progresses and booth selections are made, organizations will be expected to select entrees not already selected. This may require organizations to have as many as four or five possible options prepared at the time of the lottery.
- After all spaces in Boomtown North and South have been taken, the remaining applicants will be placed on a waiting list in the order selected. The waiting list will be used if space becomes available.
- Organizations that wish to remain on the waiting list are required to attend the mandatory health and safety meeting to ensure awareness of all the requirements. Organizations that do not attend will be dropped from the waiting list.

Health and Safety Meeting - APRIL 6, 2018

All organizations must attend the mandatory health and safety meeting at 10:30 a.m. on April 6th, 2018 in USU, Rooms 312-314

The safety of your members and our guests is very important. Representatives from the Department of Community & Environment Health Service will review important health rules and regulations. In addition, Vintage Days coordinators will be providing valuable information and answering questions concerning booths. At least two representatives from each organization must pass a test given immediately after the presentation by the Department of Community & Environmental Health Services to participate in Vintage Days 2018.

If your organization does not have at least two representatives present at this meeting in its entirety, your organization will be prohibited from participating in Vintage Days 2018. If your organization is selected to have a booth at least one representative who passed the test must be in the booth at all times throughout the event.

The Health Department will be conducting inspections during Vintage Days based on the Health Department Food and Safety Training. Organizations that have violations and need reinspections from the Health Department will incur a $91 fee from the Health Department, which is the student organization's responsibility to pay. Please work towards using your training knowledge to pass inspections. Your organization must pass a checklist inspection conducted by the Boomtown Coordinators prior to opening for business each day.

On-Site Meeting and Set-Up - APRIL 19, 2018

All participating organizations must attend the mandatory booth meeting at 4 p.m. on Thursday, April 19, 2018. This meeting will be on-site at Boomtown South (east of Music Building) food booth locations for Vintages Days 2018.

If your organization does not have a representative present at this meeting, your organization will be prohibited from participating in Vintage Days 2018.

Food Preparation and Food Sales

Due to fire and safety regulations, food may not be cooked, roasted, etc., over an open flame or gas barbecue that is under a covering such as a tent or canopy. All flame or gas barbecues must be kept outside the perimeter of all tents or canopies.

In order to have a diverse food selection, organizations will not be permitted to sell the same food item as another organization. Also, the number of booths with similar items will be limited.

Food Item List

The food item list below does not represent a complete list - only examples. Any food item with beef or chicken as a main ingredient will be categorized accordingly, regardless of other ingredients. The number of booths selling items in the same category will be limited to the number indicated. Food items must be selected from only one of the categories listed below.

Category	Examples	Estimated # Booths Boomtown South	Estimated # Booths Boomtown North
Beef	Steak, Tri-tip, Ribs, Hamburgers	5	2
Chicken	Teriyaki, Stir Fry, Kebab, Fried, BBQ	5	2

University Rules and Regulations

University regulations prohibit the selling of any food or food product made and packaged (canned, bottled, or wrapped) by a licensed producer in its original container or using a brand name in any way.

Only food items approved by Vintage Days may be sold. The selling of any other items, such as t-shirts, mugs, cups, hats, or tickets for a drawing/raffle, is prohibited.

Sales must be made from within your booth space. Only one member per organization will be permitted to solicit directly in front of your booth space. Having more than one individual or moving outside the area directly in front of your booth is prohibited.

No individual is permitted to enter any building (Music, Speech Arts, SSU) to obtain water or to wash bowls, utensils, or other items. Water sources will be provided by Vintage Days for organizations needing water.

Violations

Violations may result in forfeiture of the deposit and/or closure of the booth and/or prohibition from participating in future Vintage Days.

Violations include:

- a. Closing the booth early (before 6 p.m. on Friday-Saturday, and before 5 p.m. on Sunday)
- b. Running out of food
- c. Selling unauthorized items (i.e., additional food items or unauthorized food items, t-shirts, mugs, cups, hats, drawing/raffle tickets, etc.)
- d. Failure to participate for the entire weekend (Friday-Saturday: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day, Sunday: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.)
- e. Leaving trash and/or supplies, equipment on site.
- f. Inappropriate behavior
- g. Failure to place booth structure, decorations, canopy, etc. on site on Thursday, April 19 after the 4 p.m. meeting.

The Boomtown Coordinator will issue a warning notice for each violation and will have a representative from the organization sign the notice to acknowledge the violation.

For each violation, one-third of the organization's deposit will be forfeited. After three violations, the entire deposit will be forfeited. If there are more than three violations, the organization will be required to leave this year's Vintage Days and may be banned from participating in next year's Vintage Days.
